About

Surendranath Law College, Kolkata is a premier law institute in India which is affiliated to the University of Calcutta and recognized by the Bar Council of India. It is one of the oldest law colleges in India. The ‘Rastrapati’ Surendranath Banerjee, the great patriot and educationalist founded this prestigious institution. In 1882, the Presidency School, which formed the nucleus of the present Institution, was handed over to Sir Surendranath Banerjee on 1st January 1884. He raised it to the status of a college affiliated to the F.A. standard and named it “The Presidency Institution”. Within a year the institution was converted into a full-fledged, first grade college under the name “Ripon College”. Its activity was further extended through the opening of the Post-Graduate Department of Law in 1884, which was later affiliated to the Calcutta University in the year 1885, as an independent professional college. But after the attainment of independence, the golden cause to which Sir Surendranath dedicated his entire life, the name of the college was altered to Surendranath College. This esteemed Law College is now regarded as one of the oldest law colleges of the country. This College imparts 5 Years B.A. LL.B course and two Years LL.M Course.

The College is delighted to announce the fourth volume of its Journal, namely SNLC Law Review (ISSN- 3048-7838) as part of its initiative to promote research and study in the field of Law. It seeks to promote original and diverse legal scholarship in a global context. It is a journal aiming to communicate high quality original research work, articles, case comments and book reviews that contribute significantly to further the knowledge related to the field of Law. The Editorial Board of the SNLC Law Review (ISSN: 3048-7838) solicits submissions for its Volume 4 Issue 4. The Journal is a peer reviewed annually published journal (ISSN- 3048-7838).
